In association with the Ichikowitz Family Foundation, Trinity Films proudly present the Special Screening of award-winning documentary PLOT FOR PEACE on 9 December 2014. Audiences will encounter the story of Jean-Yves Ollivier (alias 'Monsieur Jacques'), the man responsible for the behind-the-scenes bargaining that was instrumental in securing regional peace and the end of a system of apartheid that threatened to bring Africa to its knees.

With exclusive interviews from current and former heads of state, PLOT FOR PEACE reveals a picture of a man integral to the historical negotiations responsible for freeing Mandela, previously hidden from public view and omitted from history. Operating as a life-line for top-secret contacts, Ollivier conceived and organized the exchange of a vast number of political prisoners, directly altering the course of peace talks across Africa.

Jean-Yves Ollivier has been bestowed the highest honours by both the last impenitent stalwart of apartheid, P.W. Botha, and the first President of the new South Africa, Nelson Mandela. For the first time, PLOT FOR PEACE tells his extraordinary story.
